PR Newswire

BUFFALO, N.Y. and WILMINGTON, Del.

BUFFALO, N.Y. and WILMINGTON, Del., Nov. 1, 2010 -- M&T Bank Corporation (NYSE: MTB) ("M&T") and Wilmington Trust Corporation (NYSE: WL) ("Wilmington Trust") announced jointly today that they have entered into a definitive agreement under which Wilmington Trust will merge with M&T, forming one of the largest and strongest banks in the eastern United States, a national leader in wealth management and a premier global provider of financial services to corporate clients.

Under the terms of the merger agreement, Wilmington Trust common shareholders will receive 0.051372 shares of M&T common stock in exchange for each share of Wilmington Trust common stock they own in a stock-for-stock transaction valued at approximately $351 million that is expected to close by mid-year 2011.

Headquartered in Buffalo, NY, M&T has $68.2 billion in assets, and has extensive operations in the Mid-Atlantic Region. Wilmington Trust, based in Wilmington, DE, has $10.4 billion in assets.

"This strategic partnership brings together two institutions that share many common values, and that operate several distinct but complementary lines of business," said M&T Chairman and CEO, Robert G. Wilmers. "By leveraging the combined strengths of both organizations, we are building an even more powerful franchise with strength and stability, scale and density and top-of-class products and services."

Donald E. Foley, Chairman and CEO of Wilmington Trust said, "Wilmington Trust today has two very strong fee-based businesses that continue to perform well. However, as our third quarter earnings announcement shows, we continue to face difficult financial realities associated with the credit quality of the loan portfolio in our banking business. As a result, our Board examined a range of strategic alternatives and has held discussions with several potential partners. After careful study, the Board, advised by its lead financial adviser Lazard Freres & Co., LLC, concluded that our merger with M&T is the best available option for our stockholders and also serves the interests of our clients and almost 3,000 staff members. In M&T, Wilmington Trust has found a partner with complementary businesses, a strong financial foundation and an outstanding reputation. Our merger will allow us to build on our many strengths and preserve our commitment to clients and the Delaware community."

Leading Community Banking Franchise

Its merger with Wilmington Trust will extend M&T's community banking franchise, and add to its market-leading positions in Upstate New York, Central Pennsylvania and the Mid-Atlantic region. M&T will acquire 48 branch locations in Delaware and 225 ATMs, and there is no overlap between branch networks. Following completion of the merger, M&T will operate approximately 800 branches and 2,000 ATMs in eight states, the District of Columbia and Ontario, Canada.

M&T expects to gain approximately $8.3 billion in deposits and $8.1 billion in loans from the merger (before acquisition accounting adjustments), giving M&T the top deposit share and a leading commercial lending position in Delaware. M&T already has the top commercial lending share in Maryland, is the top SBA lender in the Baltimore, Philadelphia and Washington, DC districts and holds the second-largest deposit share in Maryland.

Wilmington Trust's individual and commercial customers can continue to bank in the same convenient locations and with the same knowledgeable banking professionals they know and trust today—and they will also gain access to M&T's wider network of branches and ATMs and a wider variety of products and services.

M&T will continue Wilmington Trust's rich tradition of involvement in its Delaware communities and maintain its existing level of charitable activities.

Transformative Opportunity in Wealth Advisory Services and Corporate Client Services

The combination of the two companies' complementary advisory businesses—Wilmington Trust's Wealth Advisory Services and Corporate Client Services units and M&T's Investment Group—will both grow and diversify the combined company's revenue stream.

M&T will retain the recognizable and reputable Wilmington Trust brand for all wealth advisory and corporate services businesses, which will be based in Delaware, and will seek to introduce those services to its existing commercial banking customers across the M&T footprint. Simultaneously, M&T will introduce its branch-based retail investment and insurance related businesses across the Wilmington Trust branch network under the M&T Securities brand.

Transaction Details

Based on M&T's closing stock price of $74.75 on October 29, 2010, the transaction is valued at $3.84 per Wilmington Trust share. The purchase price represents 1.0x tangible book value as of September 30, 2010. M&T anticipates that the transaction will be accretive to GAAP and operating earnings per share in 2012, and estimates its internal rate of return on the investment to exceed 20%.

M&T will assume responsibility for Wilmington Trust's $330 million in Series A preferred stock sold to the U.S. Treasury under the U.S. government's Capital Purchase Program (CPP) in December 2008.

The merger has been approved by the boards of directors of each company, and is subject to certain customary conditions, including regulatory approval and approval by Wilmington Trust's common shareholders. After the transaction is completed, Mr. Foley will be appointed to the boards of directors of M&T and its principal banking subsidiary, M&T Bank.
