

M&T Bank Opens New Branch In Georgetown

BALTIMORE, M.D.—M&T Bank opened a new, full-service branch in the heart of Georgetown’s vibrant Wisconsin Avenue corridor today.

The new branch, located at 1420 Wisconsin Ave, has several convenient features for customers, including extended weekday hours, Saturday hours, a customer service center, night depository and ATM.

“Our new Georgetown branch is an example our investment in and commitment to the Greater Washington area,” said Steve Heine, M&T Bank’s Greater Washington Market Manager. “This is a convenient location that will help us to serve existing customers and attract new customers with our high level of service and M&T’s wide range of banking products.”

Branch manager Vickie Quezada will lead a team of experienced professionals who will work to understand customers’ unique needs and deliver personalized solutions through the bank’s full product line.

Business clients can meet with Quezada or business banker Adeep Sandhu to discuss a customized strategy for meeting their financial goals. M&T is the leading Small Business Administration lender in Greater Washington and the sixth largest in the nation.

In addition to traditional banking services, M&T customers can also access the wealth management services provided by Wilmington Trust, an M&T Bank affiliate. Eric Schoener of Wilmington Trust is available to meet with clients of the Georgetown Branch.

Customers can visit M&T’s new location from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Thursday, 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Friday and 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. on Saturday. The branch’s phone number is 202-333-6163.

M&T Bank's Greater Washington headquarters is located in Rockville. The company was founded in 1856, and M&T Bank Corporation is one of the 20 largest U.S. bank holding companies, with more than 725 branch offices and 1,800 ATMs in Maryland, Washington D.C., Virginia, Pennsylvania, New York, West Virginia and Delaware.
