

M&T Bank Awarded ATM Contract for Buffalo-Niagara Airports

BUFFALO, N.Y.—M&T Bank is now the exclusive provider of ATM services at the Buffalo Niagara International Airport (BNIA) and Niagara Falls International Airport(NFIA)—making on-the-go banking easy and fast. Airport visitors will now have access to six M&T Bank ATMs at BNIA and one at the NFIA.

“We’re not only busy ushering over 110 flights daily in and out of our airports, but also providing services to the nearly 5.4 million travelers each year to make their visit more enjoyable,” said Howard A. Zemsky, Chairman of the Niagara Frontier Transportation Authority. “Partnering with M&T Bank allows us to provide Buffalo Niagara residents and out-of-town guests with convenient access to cash on the fly.”

ATM users will benefit from features such as multiple language options, accessibility for the visually-impaired, touch screens and fast cash options to speed transactions. The ATMs at BNIA are conveniently located both before and after the security screening checkpoint.

“Buffalo has been our home since 1856 and we’re always looking for ways to make banking more accessible to the local community,” said Darren King, executive vice president for retail banking at M&T Bank. “Providing ATM services at BNIA and NFIA allows us to offer additional convenience to our Buffalo customers, as well as those travelers visiting the area.”

To celebrate the new ATM installations, M&T Bank will be giving away 1,000 copies of the latest issue of Buffalo Business First and a free coffee vouchers to BNIA travelers on Monday, Nov. 19, 2012 from 5 a.m. – 8:30 a.m.

M&T Bank is also the exclusive provider of ATMs - and has a full service branch - at Baltimore-Washington International Airport, allowing the bank to serve both ends of one of the most traveled routes from Buffalo.
