

Employees Partner with United Way to Address Childhood Hunger

M&T Bank employees from Dauphin County recently partnered with the United Way of the Capital Region and the Central Pennsylvania Food Bank (CPAFB) to help address childhood hunger.

They assembled more than 260 snack bags to donate to the CPAFB. The bags, filled with healthy foods and a drink, helped area agencies provide a snack to children at after-school programs.

“We are exceptionally proud of our employees, who are always ready to step up to fill a need in the community,” said Stephen Foreman, president of M&T Bank’s Central and Western Pennsylvania region.
