

M&T Bank Ravens Rally to be Held In Baltimore

To get fans ready for the Baltimore Ravens' game this Sunday against the Browns, M&T Bank will hold a Ravens Rally at White Marsh Mall from noon to 2 p.m. on Friday, October 9.

The celebration at the mall's center court will have the following for fans:

- Appearance and autographs by Ravens Super Bowl winning linebacker Brad Jackson
- Free Ravens 20th anniversary magnets, which are also available at all M&T Bank Baltimore-area locations, while supplies last.
- 98 ROCK Radio Remote with contests and giveaways, including a grand prize of two lower level tickets to Sunday's Ravens-Browns game
- Fans can stop by the M&T booth to find out how to get a Ravens 20th anniversary stadium blanket and a $150 cash bonus
- Autographs/ photo ops with Ravens cheerleaders and mascot Poe
- Snacks and refreshments

The celebration is part of the ongoing relationship between the Ravens and M&T Bank, which began in May of 2003 and last year was extended through 2027. In addition to naming the stadium, the partnership has many community components, including: the Honor Rows program, which gives more than 800 game tickets per season to outstanding youth volunteers; the All Community Team, which engages the corporate community to raise funds for non-profit organizations and player foundations; and Baltimore's Marching Ravens, the largest marching band in the NFL.
