

M&T Bank Expands Footprint with New Branch Opening

Modern branch to open in the heart of Baltimore's most transformative waterfront development

Baltimore, MD – September 25, 2025 – M&T Bank (NYSE: MTB) today announced its opening of a new full-service branch in the dynamic and reimagined Baltimore Peninsula. This strategic expansion reflects M&T's continued investment in Baltimore's future and its dedication to meeting the financial needs of individuals, families, and businesses across the region.

The new branch will occupy 2,140 square feet under a 15-year lease located at 301 Mission Blvd, Baltimore, MD.

Set against the backdrop of Baltimore's iconic waterfront and visible from I-95, the Baltimore Peninsula development spans 235 acres and includes 18 million square feet of thoughtfully planned parks, retail, dining, housing, and commercial space. The vibrant, mixed-use community is fast becoming one of the most exciting destinations in the Mid-Atlantic making it a natural fit for M&T Bank's growth.

"We're proud to bring M&T Bank to the Baltimore Peninsula—an inspiring symbol of renewal, opportunity, and community," said Brian Walter, Baltimore and Chesapeake Regional President at M&T Bank "This new branch reflects not only our belief in the future of this city, but our mission to be a true community partner—supporting small businesses, expanding access to financial resources, and helping more residents achieve their financial goals."

The new location, headed by M&T Bank Bilingual Commercial Branch Manager Abdoulaye Sissoko, will offer a welcoming, modern banking experience designed to meet a broad range of customer needs, from everyday transactions to personalized financial guidance and small business support.

"M&T Bank's arrival marks another exciting milestone in the evolution of Baltimore Peninsula," said MaryAnne Gilmartin, founder and CEO of MAG Partners. "We're proud to have a community-focused bank establish their presence here, providing a vital service to our residents, workforce and visitors as Baltimore Peninsula continues to bustle with activity."

M&T Bank's commitment to the Baltimore and Chesapeake regions runs deep. In 2024 alone, the bank delivered over $5 million in community impact through grants, sponsorships, and volunteer engagement. The bank also maintains 110 branches across the region and proudly holds the naming rights to M&T Bank Stadium, home of the Baltimore Ravens.

As part of this expansion, M&T looks forward to deepening partnerships with local nonprofits, entrepreneurs, and civic leaders to build a more inclusive and prosperous Baltimore.
