The M&T Charitable Foundation Contributes $425,000

Bank recognizes "Day of Gratitude" with investments addressing food insecurity,affordable housing and youth development

Wilmington, DE — Nov. 19, 2026 — M&T Bank (NYSE: MTB) is marking its annual Day of Gratitude by giving $425,000 in grants through the M&T Charitable Foundation to five Delaware nonprofits and addressing critical community needs, including food insecurity, affordable housing and youth development.

The grants will support efforts to expand access to nutritious food, stable housing for seniors and improve facilities serving children and families across Delaware. The funding reflects M&T's enduring commitment to addressing local needs and supporting organizations that strengthen communities.

The M&T Charitable Foundation awarded grants to the following organizations:

- REACH Riverside ($100,000): Supporting the expansion of the FED Up food program in Wilmington to help address food insecurity and improve access to nutritious food for local residents.
- Sharing Excess ($75,000): Supporting the organization's expansion at the Port of Wilmington to strengthen food recovery and distribution efforts. The grant is part of a broader $300,000 commitment from M&T to Sharing Excess, including $225,000 for its operations in the Bronx, New York.
- The Ministry of Caring ($100,000): Contributing to the Village of Francis & Clare, an affordable housing community for senior citizens in Wilmington, helping provide stable housing for older residents.
- Boys & Girls Clubs of Delaware ($75,000): Supporting a capital campaign to replace the organization's existing Georgetown clubhouse, providing an improved space for youth development programs and activities.
- Children's Beach House ($75,000): Assisting with capital improvements to preserve the organization's Lewes facility and its ability to serve children and families.

"At M&T, we recognize the long-term success of our communities depends on addressing the challenges facing the people who live and work here," said Krista Phillips, Delaware Regional President and Chief Customer and Transformation Officer at M&T Bank. "Through our Day of Gratitude, we're investing in organizations tackling some of Delaware's most pressing needs, from food insecurity and affordable housing to opportunities for young people. These partnerships are about making a meaningful, lasting difference in the lives of Delawareans."

M&T's Day of Gratitude is an annual tradition during which employees volunteer, donate, and celebrate the community partnerships that make a difference throughout the bank's footprint. In Delaware, M&T and its employees contribute thousands of volunteer hours annually to local causes strengthening neighborhoods and expanding opportunity.

About M&T Bank
M&T Bank Corporation is a financial holding company headquartered in Buffalo, New York. M&T's principal banking subsidiary, M&T Bank, provides banking products and services with a branch and ATM network spanning the eastern U.S. from Maine to Virginia and Washington, D.C. Trust-related services are provided in select markets in the U.S. and abroad by M&T's Wilmington Trust-affiliated companies and by M&T Bank. For more information on M&T Bank, visit www.mtb.com.

Media Contact
Neil Dhillon
(202) 768-1071
ndhillon@mtb.com

Equal Housing Lender. © 2026 M&T Bank. NMLS# 381076. Member FDIC. All rights reserved.
