

M&T Bank Launches Complimentary Webinar Series for First-Time Homebuyers Helps individuals and families take control of their financial future to achieve homeownership

PARAMUS, NJ; Jan. 11, 2021—M&T Bank announced the launch of its 2021 first-time homebuying webinar series today for individuals and families. Offering three in English and three in Spanish, the free, no-obligation seminars will provide guidance for first-time homebuyers as they navigate the process. Piloting in New Jersey's Essex and Passaic counties, each 60-minute webinar is led by M&T's mortgage experts and will feature industry guest presenters. The sessions cover a range of topics pertinent to first-time homebuyers, while answering questions such as:

- How much can I afford to spend on a home?
- How much cash will I need to purchase a home?
- Can I get assistance for a down payment or closing costs?
- Am I creditworthy?
- How can I estimate my monthly payment and housing budget?

Guests will receive homebuying information free of sales pressure to achieve the satisfaction of knowing they are ready to buy or the steps they need to take to get there.

"Buying your first home is exciting but also overwhelming if you're not sure what to expect," says Lillian Hernandez, CRA Sales Manager and Mortgage Consultant at M&T Bank. "We hope individuals and families join these webinars, which will be available in both English and Spanish, to access the information that will prepare them for homeownership and make the best choices for them and their families."

The series will be conducted via WebEx during the following dates and times:
